Solvay Brussels School
Economics & Management

WHO WE ARE

Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management (SBS-EM) was created in 1903 by Ernest Solvay, a well-known humanist and Belgian captain of industry. The School is proud to be part of the Université libre de Bruxelles (ULB), one of the most eminent universities in Belgium.

SBS-EM honours the main goals set by its founders, namely: training leaders of tomorrow, men and women, with strong decision-making and multi-disciplinary skills and focused on analytical and scientific approaches. SBS-EM has an excellent reputation (AMBA & EQUIS accredited) locally and internationally. It is known for its excellent students, quality and rigour of its programmes, strong ties with the industry & business world.

Mission

To have a decisive and positive impact on how economic, business, and societal challenges are addressed. With a strong emphasis on quantitative methods, we produce pioneering research and educate women and men to become true leaders and entrepreneurs in their respective fields.

Vision

Our School aims at being a leading European school in economics and management, as enabler of the sustainability transformation of our society.

Integrated in a multi-disciplinary research-based university, the SBS-EM is intensively collaborating with its entire ecosystem and combines a unique blend of scientific rigour, contextual engagement, and problem-solving skills, with an ambitious European and global reach.
