SOLVAY BRUSSELS SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT (SBS-EM)

Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management (SBS-EM) was created in 1903 by Ernest Solvay, a well-known humanist and Belgian captain of industry. Today, the School is proud to be part of the Université libre de Bruxelles (ULB), one of the most eminent universities in Belgium with 38,000 students/year, 13 Faculties and 6 Nobel prizes.

SBS-EM honours the main goals set by its founders, namely: training leaders of tomorrow, men and women, with strong decision-making skills, multi-disciplinary vision and focused on quantitative and scientific approaches.

SBS-EM has an excellent reputation (AMBA & EQUIS accredited) in the region. It's known for its excellent students, quality and rigour of its programmes, strong ties with business & society and dynamic alumni network.

The school offers a wide range of programmes, from Bachelor degrees to executive education and Ph.D.

ACADEMIC & CULTURAL DISCOVERIES IN THE HEART OF EUROPE

A Gateway to Europe and Beyond

Centrally located in the heart of Europe, Brussels offers the perfect starting point for both learning and exploration. As the capital of Belgium and the de facto capital of the European Union, the city is an international hub for politics, business, and culture.

International Vibe

With people from over 180 nationalities, Brussels is a multilingual, multicultural city where global perspectives meet daily life.

Business & Institutions

Home to key European institutions, major multinational companies, and financial actors, Brussels offers exclusive access to real-world economic and political insights.

Highlight visits

Take your academic experience beyond the classroom with unique visits across Belgium and neighbouring countries:

Cultural Brussels

Belgian Chocolate Village, Belgian Beer World, Comics Art Museum... Enjoy the charm and creativity of the capital through fun and tasty cultural stops.

The Port of Antwerp

One of Europe's largest ports, offering a behind-the-scenes look at global logistics, sustainability and innovation in transport.

Finance Day in Luxembourg

A full-day immersion into one of the world's leading financial centres!
